LIFE in the 90'S

A COCKTAIL BOOK

Welcome to the 90s - often hailed as the last great decade of the 20th century. An era when the internet was just a baby, fashion was an explosion of denim and neon, and music came in the form of mixtapes and MTV.

It was a time when 'getting connected' meant a long cord on the telephone, and 'streaming' was just something that rivers did.

The 2nd edition of our cocktail menu brings back the 90s spirit, with each cocktail narrating a story that resonates with the era. So, join us as we take a trip down memory lane to the raddest, most fly decade of them all - the 90s!

2 MINUTE NOODS

GORDON'S LONDON DRY GIN,
DILL & ELDERFLOWER MIX, OUZO

Similar to the transformation of emails, here's a blend inspired by Maggi's journey from its inception to becoming the leading instant noodles. From late-night cravings to 'one of those days,' it stays as relevant as the era's infectious Bollywood hits.

DRINKUR VEGGIES

OLIVE OIL-WASHED ABSOLUT VODKA, ARUGULA,
AROMATISED WINE, BALSAMIC REDUCTION

In an era when animation was a groundbreaking innovation and cartoons brought joy to both kids and adults alike, life seemed simpler. This creation captures the essence of those epic remote-control battles and negotiations for just one more show.

TEA PARTY

HAVANA CLUB AÑEJO 3 AÑOS RUM, LYCHEE,
GREEN CHARTREUSE, JASMINE TEA

When running out of things didn't automatically mean opening delivery apps, and borrowing from your neighbour's often led to gossip sessions over evening tea, this drink captures the playful murmur of shared laughter and secrets.

RAINBOW POCKETS

BEEFEATER LONDON DRY GIN,
HOMEMADE MELON LIQUEUR, HERBAL SODA

A toast to the era when colours weren't just worn, they were lived. From the days when our closets were vibrant palettes, contrasting the muted colours of today, where long pencil skirts with slits walked alongside baggy straight fits.
